Valdy with Doris Mason

Date and Time: Saturday, September 14 8:00 pm

Address: JR Smallwood Arts and Culture Centre - Airport Blvd

Folk Legend Valdy to tour Newfoundland and Labrador Arts & Culture Centres, joined by the incredibly talented

d Doris Mason.

Valdy will once again bring his talent and charm to Newfoundland and Labrador this fall, performing shows at Arts & Culture Centres with fellow Canadian Doris Mason, a well known performer who has successfully juggled a busy solo career, work as Musical Director for the hit touring show “DRUM!”, and starred in Denny Doherty’s “Dream a Little Dream”- the nearly true story of the Mamas and Papas, as his special guest. Valdy has been part of the fabric of Canadian pop and folk music for half a century. He is well known for “Play Me a Rock ‘n’ Roll Song” but has also delighted audiences everywhere performing classics such as “Peter & Lou”, “Yes I Can”, “Renaissance”, “Sonny’s Dream” and many more.

One of Canada’s premier folk artists, Valdy had an improbable hit with a song about a decidedly hostile audience heckling a soft-spoken minstrel. The square-peg-in-a-round-hole story recounts Valdy’s bitter-sweet memory of finding himself, a relaxed and amiable storyteller, facing a rambunctious audience playing at the Aldergrove Rock Festival in 1968, where the rock-loving audience jeered his folk offerings. Valdy has always recognized the irony that a bad gig turned into a hit. In 2012, he told an interviewer, “I was hired as a folk singer to go and play at a rock festival. I was out of place and ... I got the reception I deserved, let’s put it that way. They wanted rock, they gave me a hard time about it, and I got a great song out of it.” Ironically, Valdy is in the Victoria Rock and Roll Music Hall of Fame.

Play Me a Rock and Roll Song’s success is attributable in part to several factors. It cleverly played into the hippy counter-culture movement, while embodying the tensions between rock and folk fans (which Bob Dylan discovered when he infamously used electric instruments at the 1965 Newport Folk Festival)

Tickets are $40 full price and $35 for students/seniors. Tickets can be purchased at the Arts & Culture Centre Box Office, by calling 256-1081 or online at <https://artsandculturecentre.com/gander/Online/>
