Kelly Russell's Who Knit Ya

Date and Time: Sunday, October 6 8:00 pm

Address: JR Smallwood Arts and Culture Centre - Airport Blvd

“Kelly Russell’s Who Knit Ya?” tells the story of Kelly’s journey from rebellious teen to Order of Canada recipient. Starting with piano lessons with his Mom and his dreams of becoming a rock star, the play revisits the early days of Kelly’s career: the formation of iconic bands Figgy Duff and The Wonderful Grand Band, his friendships with legendary fiddlers Rufus Guinchard and Emile Benoit, the creation of his own record label, and his travels worldwide. Throughout the show, Kelly plays piano, guitar, mandolin, bouzouki, concertina, dulcimer and, of course, fiddle, and shares two of his father’s most beloved “Tales from Pigeon Inlet.”

A School Zone Production

Directed by Fabian O’Keefe

Written and performed by Kelly Russell

Tickets are $35 Full Price/ $30 Students/Seniors and can be purchased at the Arts & Culture Centre Box Office, by calling 256-1081 or online at <https://artsandculturecentre.com/gander/Online/>

Owen Mac

Date and Time: Friday, October 18 8:00 pm

Address: JR Smallwood Arts and Culture Centre - Airport Blvd

The hugely popular rising star Owen Mac has been performing since the age of 12, and has amassed over 360,000 followers on social media in the intervening years. With legions of fans all across Ireland, the UK, in the US and Canada, the 20-year-old sensation has been described as following in the same career path as Daniel O' Donnell. Owen cites Gene Watson and Rascal Flatts among those who inspired him to perform, but his greatest influence and advocate has been his parents. His father, Dessie, is also a country music singer. The talented teenager counts his lucky stars and shares his gratitude to his family. To date Owen has released 7 studio albums with a brand new CD set for release in 2024. Owen has amassed an incredible 50 million YouTube views with songs like "Play Me the Waltz of the Angels", "My Mother" and "The Far Side Banks of Jordan" (Duet with Tony Allen) and has been a regular feature on well known TV shows on UTV, RTE and Sky. Join Owen live in concert for a magical evening of music and song where he will perform his trademark Country, Irish, and Gospel hits!

Tangled Up in Bob: Mick Davis Sings Dylan

Date and Time: Sunday, October 20 8:00 pm

Address: JR Smallwood Arts and Culture Centre - Airport Blvd

"In my house, Dylan was dubbed, 'His Bobness'. My father & his brothers all strummed guitars with harmonica and yoke at hand. Bob's unique voice helped me to find a voice of my own at a time when I wasn't confident in my own vocal abilities.

And his songwriting opens all possibilities." - Mick Davis And so, the decorated Rocker -armed with guitar and harmonica- offers up an intimate evening of Dylan's career spanning hits, from the 60's peace anthem "Blowin' In The Wind" and the psychedelic "Mr. Tambourine Man" to the romantic yearnings of "Sweetheart Like You" and "Make You Feel My love".

Mick Davis is a Canadian singer-songwriter and founder of The Novaks. A twenty-five year veteran of performing, record-making, and touring, Mick's music trek boasts of alliances with Steve Van Zandt and opening dates with KISS. Mick is the recipient of numerous MusicNL and ECMA awards. He lives in St. John's, NL.

Tickets are $35 Full Price and can be purchased at the Arts & Culture Centre Box Office, by calling 256-1081 or online at <https://artsandculturecentre.com/gander/Online/>
